WHY DO YOU NEED THIS PROGRAM?

You cannot change what you refuse to confront!

In the modern era, raising adolescents is becoming an increasingly difficult task for all parents. Technology exposure has made it nearly impossible to keep an eye on or manage our older teens' activities. Today's youngsters have many misconceptions and lack of knowledge about the Indian holistic way of life, which has led to hazardous behaviors and lifestyle choices. Renowned holistic life coach Dr. Gopalakrishna Sharma is guiding the next generation to appreciate and embrace the wisdom, values, and enduring relevance of our time-honored traditions. As part of family astral counseling and astrology consulting services, Dr. Sharma conducts educational sessions alongside personalized astral counseling for each family member. Through detailed horoscope analysis, a unique blueprint is created for every individual in the family, helping them align with a deeper understanding of their true nature, connections, and destiny. The "Back to Roots" program is dedicated to supporting families in rediscovering their authentic selves and shared values, fostering greater harmony, insight and alignment within the household.

What is in it for me?

Revived Family Values: The program helps restore and celebrate core family values by connecting everyone to their cultural heritage and traditions.

Improved Health and Lifestyle: Families learn about healthy habits and practices that align with traditional wisdom, which can support better physical and emotional wellbeing.

Stronger Family Bonds: Participating together promotes increased unity, trust and a deeper sense of belonging—helping all members appreciate and support each other.

Education and Awareness: The program provides educational opportunities that clarify misconceptions about ancient practices, and explains the philosophy and science behind them in accessible ways.

Personal and Collective Growth: By reconnecting with your roots, all family members are encouraged to self-reflect, discover their purpose, and pursue holistic development.

Practical Tools: You'll receive actionable tips to integrate these learnings into daily life, making it simple for everyone to grow together.

In summary, "Back to the Roots" empowers families with cultural, health, and personal growth benefits designed to strengthen both individual and collective wellbeing.
